

Carl Alvin Strand 1922-2009

Carl Strand died Wednesday, August 12, 2009. Carl and Marilynn moved to Owatonna from Duluth in 1998. They were among the original owners of Morehouse Place. He served on the board 2003-2006.

Carl was a kind, quiet and strong man who showed loving patience and devotion to Marilynn as her illness progressed.

He is survived by Marilynn who is living at Alterra Clare Bridge Cottage, his son David in Owatonna and two daughters, Mary and Karen.

In memory of Carl, at his son's suggestion, Morehouse Place sent a donation to the American Legion.

Morehouse Members Winners at the Fair

If you were at the fair and stopped by the homemade wine display, you saw several entries from Maynard Maas. He won a few ribbons for his work.

The Hager family of Owatonna (Betty, Samantha and Scott) was named this year's Culinary Arts Family Feud Champion. This award recognizes families for their multi-generational involvement in the culinary arts department and is sponsored by the Pizza Ranch and culinary arts superintendent.

Herb Rund won second place in the Senior Citizen Spelling bee between Owatonna Senior Center and Mankato Senior Center.

Way to go Maynard, Betty and Herb!!

Thank You!

Thank you Steve Madson for always being so willing to stop at Sam's Club when Barb needs Fireside Room supplies.

Thank you Elaine Sigstad for donation of taper candles for the Fireside Room.

ATTENTION

On several occasions we have found loose garbage in the fiber recycling bins. We take out what we can, but the coffee grounds stay. Waste Management does not look favorably upon this, because it contaminates the contents. We ask that greater care be taken in depositing garbage and recyclables.

Another reminder: Yogurt cups, cottage cheese cartons, juice boxes, and margarine containers are not acceptable in the container bins.

Recycling is a habit that can be cultivated with effort and dedication. Collect in the separate categories within your apartment and take down to the recycling room when you go to your car. The grocery carts can also be used.

PLEASE!
Do not put garbage in the recycle bins!
